COMPANY PROFILE

About BOHANCHI

Guangzhou Bohanchi Automotive Parts Co., Ltd. specialises in the research, development, manufacture and sale of automotive air-conditioning compressors and parts. Our manufacturing heritage dates back to 1999. The factory site covers 18,000 square metres, with a building area of 12,000 square metres.

Our production and inspection equipment, processing capabilities, technical team and management practices support product quality. BOHANCHI compressors and parts serve customers in China, Southeast Asia, Europe and the United States.

The product range includes 5H, 7H, 96, 10PA, DKS, 10S and HCC compressor series for general automotive, heavy-truck, compact-vehicle and passenger-car applications. The factory profile records annual production capacity of up to 500,000 units and the implementation of ISO/TS-16949 quality management and 6S workplace management.

Our principles are quality products, reasonable prices, considerate service and customer satisfaction. We welcome cooperation with automotive air-conditioning manufacturers and distributors, and aim to build lasting partnerships through integrity and mutual benefit.
